

company employs about 3000 people. Bell & Howell employs about 4000 people. If the merger goes through, directors of both companies have agreed in principle on a distribution of three additional Bell & Howell common shares for each four shares presently held, and CEC shareowners would receive one share of Bell & Howell common stock in exchange for each share of CEC.

Federal Manufacturing and Engineering Corp., 1055 Stewart Ave., Garden City, N.Y., has announced acquisition of two firms, Television Specialty Co., manufacturers of motion-picture and television broadcasting equipment, and Cameraflex Corp., manufacturers of motion-picture cameras for missile tracking and instrumentation work. Federal's plan is to combine the two companies with its present enlarger and micro-film departments to form a photo products division. K. A. Jenkins, President of Television Specialty Co., will head the newly formed group. Plans included development of medical, military and industrial photographic equipment.

The Hallen Electronics Co., manufacturer of magnetic film recording equipment, has moved to larger quarters, at 652 S. Myers St., Los Angeles 23. The two-story building covers 30,000 sq ft with electronic, mechanical and manufacturing operations occupying the second floor, and administrative, sales and accounting on the ground floor.

A new RCA plant for the manufacturing of industrial electronic products will be constructed in Pennsylvania in the Washington-Canonsburg area. Plans call for immediate construction of an administrative and engineering building covering 50,000 sq ft on a 50-acre site, with provision made for possible future expansion requiring a manufacturing center covering 130,000 sq ft.
