Forty-four members and guests of the Washington Section met June 18 at the National Academy of Sciences. Guest speaker was Maxwell A. Kerr of General Electric Co., Syracuse, N.Y., who delivered his paper that was previously presented at the 93rd Technical Conference: "Arc Sound Motion Pictures Necessary!"

The use of audio-visual aids to show motion may not be necessary, Mr. Kerr said. The ability to halt the sound and discuss or examine a picture in detail may be more important to the learning process. He concluded that sound-slide and sound-filmstrip programs with automatic control of picture advance have particular advantages in such situations.—Willis M. Warren, Secretary-Treasurer, c/o Wilmo Corp., 3322 M St., N.W., Washington 7, D.C.

Sixty-four members and guests of the Washington Section met October 7 at the Walter Reed Army Medical Center Officers Club to hear Jim Etheridge and Byron Morgan of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration speak on "Production Techniques in the National Space Agency." The techniques were illustrated by the showing of Project Apollo, an animated film dealing with the problems of manned space flight to the moon. Among the guests were Tom Lowry, producer of the NASA film; SMPTE National Membership Chairman Edward A. Winkler, and C. Russell Dupree, a manager of the New York Section.—Willis M. Warren, Secretary-Treasurer, c/o Wilmo Corp., 3322 M St., N.W., Washington 7, D.C.
