

JOURNAL

OF THE SOCIETY OF

MOTION PICTURE ENGINEERS

Volume XXIX

SEPTEMBER, 1937

Number 3

CONTENTS

	Page
Recent Progress in Acoustics..... V. O. KNUDSEN	233
The New Agfacolor Process... J. L. FORREST AND F. M. WING	248
The RCA Recording System and Its Adaptation to Various Types of Sound-Track..... G. L. DIMMICK	258
A Device for Direct Reproduction from Variable-Density Sound Negatives..... W. J. ALBERSHEIM	274
An Automatic Sound-Track Editing Machine.... G. M. BEST	281
A Dubbing Rehearsal Channel..... H. G. TASKER	286
The Evolution of Special-Effects Cinematography from an Engineering Viewpoint..... F. W. JACKMAN	293
Present Aspects in the Development of 16-Mm. Sound..... A. SHAPIRO	303
New Motion Picture Apparatus
Improved Noise-Reduction System for High-Fidelity Re- cording.....
H. J. HASBROUCK, J. O. BAKER, AND C. N. BATSEL	310
Two New Films for Duplicating Work.....
C. E. IVES AND J. I. CRABTREE	317
Infrared Negative as Applied to Special-Effects Photography G. W. HOUGH AND W. LEAHY	326
Current Literature.....	330
Book Review.....	332
Committees.....	334
Fall, 1937, Convention; Hotel Pennsylvania, New York, N. Y., October 11-14th.....	339
Society Announcements.....	343