

after supplying some of the known television cost figures:

"The worst effects of the commission report are psychological. New York State has always been considered a leader in affairs of this sort. Other legislatures and even private educators who had been interested in educational TV might assume that New York has examined the thing honestly and found it wanting. This is untrue. Gov. Dewey has long been hostile to the Board of Regents and to everything they propose. The commission seems to have fallen all over itself to accommodate him, even to the extent of falsifying every known fact about educational television."—V.A.

Audio-Visual Communication Review

This is a new quarterly issuing from the Department of Audio-Visual Instruction (DAVI) of the National Education Association, 1201 16th St., N.W., Washington 6, D.C. Articles deal mostly with film and television from a cultural point of view, and a department of "Research Abstracts" provides précis of articles from other publications, dealing with films and television as training media.
