

New Fellows of the Society

A Fellow of the Society is one who is no less than 30 years of age and who has, by proficiency and contributions, attained an outstanding rank among engineers or executives in the motion-picture, television, or related industries. A listing of new Fellows and their company affiliations appears below.

Kenneth Henry Barratt, Sony Broadcast and Communications Ltd.
Gary L. Borton, Eastman Kodak Co.

Thomas W. Cavanagh, CBC Engineering

David A. Elliot, Capital Cities/ABC, Inc.

Guy Gougeon, La Société Radio-Canada/Canadian Broadcasting Corp.

Paul W. Hedburn, Astro Color Laboratories, Inc.

Ken H. Kishimoto, Fuji Photo Film USA

Victor L. Kong, Magni Systems, Inc.

Joseph John Kresnicka, Consultant

James C. McKinney, Advanced Television Systems Committee

E. Fraser Morrison, Ampex Corp.

C. Robert Paulson, AVP Communication

Bruce J. Penney, Tektronix, Inc.

Steven J. Powell, Eastman Kodak Co.

Jacques Jean Claude Sabatier, Thomson Consumer Electronics

Helmut Schönfelder, Institute for Communication Technique at the Technical University of Braunschweig

Joseph Clyde Wary, Deluxe Laboratories

New SMPTE Fellows: Thomas Cavanagh, Guy Gougeon, Jacques Jean Claude Sabatier, Kenneth H. Barratt, Steven J. Powell, Gary Borton, Joseph Wary, James C. McKinney, Joseph J. Kresnicka, Helmut Schonfelder, E. Fraser Morrison, David A. Elliott, Paul W. Hedburn, Ken Koshimoto, and Victor L. Kong.

Welcoming Reception

The Welcoming Reception, hosted by the SMPTE, was held Friday, October 12, in the Astor Ballroom of the Marriott Marquis Hotel. The well-attended event provided a pleasant atmosphere to rekindle old friendships as well as to make new acquaintances. Guests enjoyed an open bar and buffet during the event, which began at 6:00 p.m.

Coffee Club

Eastman Kodak Co. and FPC (a Kodak Co.) sponsored a coffee club at the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center from 7:30 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. each morning of the conference. Registrants were able to enjoy fresh coffee and Danish.

The Friday night welcoming reception.

Conference Vice-President L. John Spring.

SMPTE Banquet

The annual banquet, held Tuesday evening, October 16, was enjoyed by all who attended. Preceded by a reception sponsored by Ampex Corp. at 7:00 p.m., the banquet began at 8:00 p.m. NBC sponsored the banquet wines, while Grass Valley Group and Panasonic Broadcast Co. provided for the entertainment of the Jerry Jerome Orchestra. Banquet Chairman Neil R. Pilzer, MPE, planned the evening.

Spouses Program

Spouses attending the conference were invited to take a bite out of the Big Apple by Spouses Program Chairwoman Patricia Spicer, who organized an event that included elegant dining, shopping information, and tours of historic Manhattan sites.

The program began with the traditional Welcome Tea on Friday. On Saturday the activities included a continental breakfast at the Marriott Marquis Sunroof; a presentation by the publisher of Best for Less, a newsletter for creative bargain hunters; and the Honors and Awards Luncheon. Throughout the event, spouses breakfasts were sponsored by the Sony Corp.

On Sunday, the program began with a private tour of the city from Times Square to the Tribeca area and the new Battery Park City. Spouses then visited two private homes of Tribeca residents. A brunch at the grand buffet of Windows on the World followed, and after the meal spouses took a trip to the Winter Garden and the Esplanade, which extends the length of Battery Park along the Hudson River.

On Monday, spouses met for breakfast at the hotel sunroof, and then took a tour of the recently restored Carnegie Hall, which included behind-the-scenes anecdotes and a short film. A luncheon at the new Symphony Cafe followed and spouses were introduced to Geoffrey Gilbert Beers, the cafe's architect. After lunch, the group visited Lincoln Center and met an opera star who was performing there. Tuesday's offerings included tours of the Henry Clay Frick home and Abigail Adams Smith house, followed by a luncheon at Regine's. The program closed with a farewell breakfast at the Marriott Marquis Sunroof on Wednesday.

SMPTE Booth

The SMPTE booth was a busy place. Membership Chairman Ed Schuller and SMPTE Membership Coordinator Daureen Matera signed up 135 new members to the Society. SMPTE members and officers, including Martin Rich, Fred Remley, John Erwin, Carlos Kennedy, Joseph Barber, and Peter Keane, were on hand, ably assisted by Sonia Johnson and Ann Seminara of the SMPTE headquarters staff, to answer questions about membership, conferences, section meetings, test programs, and publications. Mary Connolly was kept busy taking reservations for the banquet, while Marilyn Waldman took charge of the authors' lounge. Julie Wood sold preprints of selected papers that were presented at the conference.

Acknowledgments

The annual conference would not have been the same without the support of its many sponsors. The Society wishes to thank the following companies and organizations for providing necessary services to the 132nd SMPTE Technical Conference: Banquet Entertainment: The Grass Valley Group, Inc., Panasonic Broadcast Systems Co.; Banquet Reception: Ampex Corp.; Banquet Wines: National Broadcasting Co., Inc.; Coffee Club: Eastman Kodak Co., FPC (a Kodak Co.); Fellows Reception: Magna-Tech Electronic Co., Inc.; Honors and Awards Reception: Abekas Video Systems, Inc.; Program Printing: Pacific Title & Art Studio; and Spouses Breakfasts: Sony Corp.

The SMPTE Banquet.