141st Conference and Technical Exhibition Takes Place this Month

November is here and the countdown has begun for the well-anticipated 141st Technical Conference and Exhibition, to be held on November 19-22 at the Marriott Marquis in New York City. The event, which is themed "Sprockets, Samples, and Satellites: Moving Imaging into the Third Millennium," is expected to bring together a large number of industry professionals from the U.S. and around the world.

The four-day program, chaired by Birney Dayton, NVision, and Linda Young, DuArt Film Laboratories, includes an all-day seminar, on Friday, November 19, and ten technical paper sessions to follow on November 20-22.

The conference will also include exhibitions by over 80 companies in the industry, as well as the Welcome Reception, Industry Luncheon, Fellows Luncheon, and Honors and Awards Reception.

A detailed 141st Conference and Exhibition program is available in this issue of the Journal.

SMPTE Members to be Honored at Fall Conference

The Society will honor nine members for outstanding achievement in the motion picture industry at its annual Honors and Awards Reception, which will take place on November 21 at the Marriott Marquis Ballroom, during the 141st Technical Conference and Exhibition. Nineteen new fellows will be honored at the annual Fellows Luncheon, also being held on November 21.

Additional information is available in the conference section of this month's Journal.
