

124th SMPTE Technical Conference and Equipment Exhibit

November 7-12, 1982, New York Hilton Hotel, New York City

The New York Hilton Hotel will be the site of SMPTE's 124th Annual Technical Conference and Equipment Exhibit, beginning on November 7 and running through November 12th.

Program Chairman Gary L. Borton, Eastman Kodak Company, promises a papers program of high quality spanning a wide range of technical subjects which will be of interest to everyone in the film and television fields. The subjects that will be covered during the week of concurrent sessions are: Papers on International Television; New Television Technology; Videotape Recording; Future Television Studio Design; Television Audio; Television Image and Signal Evaluation Technologies; Television Post-Production; Television Production; Historical Papers; Laboratory Practices: New Film and Equipment; Laboratory Practices: New Technology; Lighting; Film-to-Tape Interface; Motion-Picture Production and Special Effects; Motion-Picture Sound; and Projection Practices. The Co-Chairmen for the Program are for Film: Donald F. Breidt, Novo Communications, and Richard Green, CBS Television, for Television.

There is ample time in the program to visit the SMPTE Technical Exhibit on the second floor of the New York Hilton. The exhibit opens Tuesday, November 9 at 10 A.M. and will remain open to 8 P.M. Tuesday evening. Wednesday hours are 10 A.M.-6 P.M. Thursday 10 A.M.-6 P.M. For those unable to visit during the early part of the day, Tuesday offers a good part of the evening for viewing the latest in technological advances within the industry.

Requests for space indicate that leading industries plan on attending to show their products and answer your questions. Allow time in your schedule for the exhibits.

Local Arrangements Chairman Alvin J. Siegler, CBS Television, and his committee are handling the myriad of details that go into making every Conference a success.

Sponsored Events

Once again the Society is grateful for the support given by those companies who sponsor or assist in sponsoring various activities that are held during Conference week.

Conference Vice-President Charles A. Ahto, Tape-Film Industries, has announced the following events and their sponsors:

- Sunday Evening Reception — Eastman Kodak Company;
- Daily Coffee Club — Fuji Photo Film USA;
- Activities during the Spouses' Program — JVC;
- Reception for the Fellows Luncheon — Magnasync/Moviola Corp.;
- Reception for the Banquet — 3M, Magnetic Audio Video Products Division;
- Wines at the Banquet — Technicolor, Inc.;

Dorothy Eady, Chairwoman of the Spouses' Program.

Banquet Music and Entertainment — Hazeltine Corp.

Not only will the Conference be spotlighted by an excellent program, but the Society will provide a series of exciting social activities for SMPTE attendees. The following is a brief overview of the Conference week.

Sunday: Registration and Welcoming Reception.

Monday: Technical Sessions, Honors and Awards Luncheon

Tuesday: Technical Sessions, Exhibits, Fellows Luncheon

Wednesday: Technical Sessions, Exhibits

Thursday: Technical Sessions, Exhibits

Friday: Technical Sessions, Banquet and Reception.

Dorothy Eady, Chairwoman of the Spouses' Program, and her committee are planning an exciting week of activities, which will include a visit to the Roosevelt home, Sagamore Hill in Oyster Bay. New York always offers an endless choice of activities, and the Spouses' Program Committee plans to put together a selection of activities that will appeal to all.

Registration and Hotel Information

The Society has a block of rooms that will be available to Conference registrants and exhibitors at reduced prices at the New York Hilton Hotel, and reservations will be accepted only on the forms supplied by SMPTE. This information, together with Conference registration forms, will be mailed to all members in August. These forms may be copied, or additional forms will be provided by calling SMPTE Headquarters (914) 472-6606.

