

130th SMPTE Technical Conference and Equipment Exhibit

October 15–19, 1988, New York City

The Jacob K. Javits Convention Center.

The 130th SMPTE Technical Conference and Equipment Exhibit is set for October 15 through 19, 1988, at the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center in New York. The conference is under the direction of SMPTE Editorial Vice-President Howard T. La Zare, Deluxe Laboratories, Inc., and Conference Vice-President Blaine Baker, MPL Film & Video, Inc. La Zare is responsible for the technical program and Baker for the exhibit and general arrangements.

The Program

The conference theme, "Innovations in Imaging and Sound," was determined by Program Chairman Edward J. Burns, Eastman Kodak Co., and Vice-Chairman Frank J. Haney, Capital Cities/ABC, Inc. Burns has named John L. Baptista, Consolidated Film Industries, and Alan S. Godber, NBC, Inc., as the topic chairmen.

The program for the 130th Technical Conference is coming together, according to Program Chairman Ed Burns. At the time of this writing, the final submission deadline of June 15 was still two months away, yet many papers had already been received.

Arrangements

Charles E. Spicer of NBC, Inc., is chairman of the general arrangements committee. Working with him will be members of the committee who will handle specific conference functions, such as providing shuttle bus transportation, projection and recording equipment, and organizing the spouses program, banquet, and Honors and Awards Luncheon.

The general arrangements committee includes: Ed Hobson, Grass Valley Group, Hotel Arrangements and Associate General Arrangements Chairman; Alan Rosenfeld, Registration Chairman; Timothy J. Spitzer, Du Art Film Laboratories,

Equipment Exhibit

The SMPTE has sent application materials for exhibit participation to sustaining members, prior exhibitors, and other companies that have expressed interest in participating. The response has been excellent and it is expected that this exhibit will be among the best in SMPTE history. Information about the exhibit is available from Anne Cocchia, Conference/Exhibit Manager, c/o SMPTE, 595 W. Hartsdale Ave., White Plains, NY 10607. A list of exhibitors will be published in a future issue of the Journal.
