

SMPTE Historical Reflections

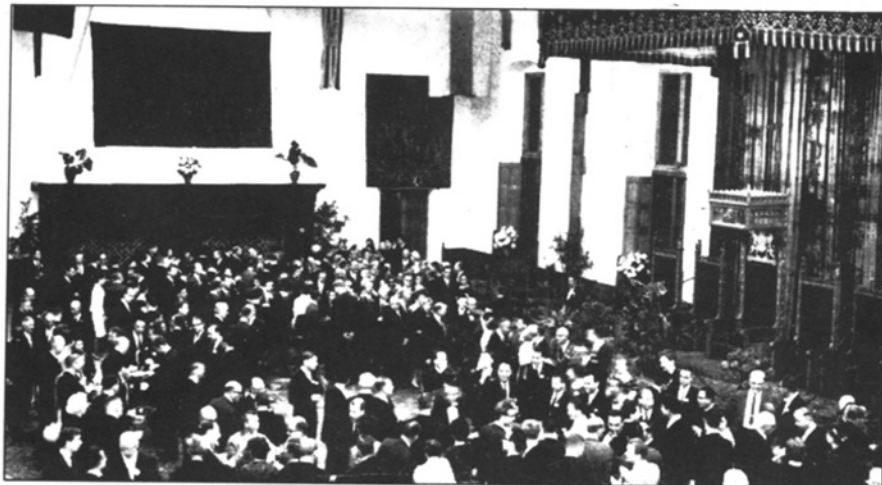

(Left) Aft funnel with three Yagi aerials mounted on a support designed specially for this service by the shipbuilder. (Right) The two H-Q cameras coupled with two 16mm film projectors and two 16mm perforated tape recorders • The Television Installation on Board the S.S. France • P. M. C. van der Spank • JSMPT, July 1963.

Typical chromatograms of fresh solvent and recovered solvent; all impurities are below the level of 0.1% • A System for the Recovery of Solvent Vapors • E. H. Reichard • JSMPT, July 1963.

Interferometer pictures of a shock passing through a parallel-walked channel, upper pair, and through a divergent channel, lower pair • Comments on Light Sources • H. E. Edgerton • JSMPT, July 1963.

An official reception held for the Congress attendees and guests was offered jointly by the Minister of Education, Arts and Sciences, His Excellency J. M. L. Th. Cals, and H. A. M. T. Kolfshoten, the Burgomester of The Hague. It was held in the Knights Hall where the Parliament was officially opened the day before. • The Sixth International Congress on High-Speed Photography — A Review • M. Beard • JSMPT, July 1963.