The Conference

Under the programming guidance of renowned technology expert Larry Thorpe, SMPTE's Technical Conference will focus on the latest developments affecting High Definition, Broadcasting, Compression, and Networking, and will offer a host of educational sessions to bring you up-to-date on the latest innovations to hit motion imaging.

The SMPTE Exhibition

A lot of the technologies are already being integrated, and you can see how in the SMPTE Exhibition Hall. Come and see the hottest technologies and services to hit the motion imaging industry. Check out products; network with exhibitors; see where technology is pushing the consumer market, all at SMPTE's Technical Exhibit.

The Start

And this is only the start. We'll be working "round the clock" to bring you the most edifying, educational, and enlightening Conference/Exhibition experience you've had in a long time.

Stay Tuned!
