

TRANSACTIONS

OF THE

SOCIETY OF MOTION PICTURE ENGINEERS

CONTENTS

Officers, Committees	3-4
List of Members	5
Report of Progress Committee 1925-1926	11
The Jenkins Chronoteine Camera for High Speed Motion Studies. By C. Francis Jenkins	25
The Publix Theatre Managers School. By John F Barry	31
Scoring a Motion Picture. By Victor Wagner	40
The Public and Motion Pictures. By Wm. A. Johnston	44
Display Enlargements from Single Frame Motion Pictures By K. C. D. Hickman	49
Some Developments in the Production of Animated Drawings. By J. A. Norling and J. F. Leventhal	58
The Effect on Screen Illumination of Bubbles, Seeds, and Striations in the Bulbs of Projection Lamps. By L. C. Porter and W. S. Hadaway	67
Subtractive Color Motion Pictures on Single Coated Film. By F. E. Ives	74
Problems of a Projectionist. By Lewis M. Townsend	79
The Useful Life of Film. By F. H. Richardson	89
Trick Photography. By Carl Louis Gregory	99
The Staining Properties of Motion Picture Developers. By J. I. Crab- tree and M. L. Dundon	108
Cleaning Motion Picture Positive Film. By Trevor Faulkner	117
Motion Picture Theatre Progress in Smaller Towns and Rural Com- munities. By Harry E. Holquist	124
Internal Developments in the Motion Picture Industry. By Carl. E. Milliken	129
Note on the Strength of Splices. By S. E. Sheppard and S. S. Sweet	142
The Effect of Projection Lens Flare upon the Contrast of a Motion Picture Image. By L. A. Jones and Clifton Tuttle	153
A New Cinematograph Film for a Limited Field	167
Advertisements	169

Number Twenty-five

MEETING OF MAY 3, 4, 5, 6, 1926

WASHINGTON, D. C.