

TRANSACTIONS

OF THE

SOCIETY OF

MOTION PICTURE

ENGINEERS

CONTENTS

	PAGE
Officers	3
List of Officers Elect	4
Committees	5
Membership List	8
Constitution and By-Laws	15
Presidential Address	18
Accurate Methods for Expressing the Performance of Lenses. By W. B. Rayton	21
Pedagogical Motion Pictures. By Carl Anderson	30
Film Waxing Machine. By J. G. Jones	35
A Method of Using Miniatures or Models for the Introduction of Extra Detail in Motion Pictures. By Dr. Alfred B. Hitchins	41
A Motion Analyzer. By Hermann Kellner	47
Problems in Motion Picture Laboratories. By M. Briefer	51
Effect of Distance of Projection and Projection Angle upon the Screen Image. By F. H. Richardson	67
A Demonstration Model for Showing Lens and Condenser Action in the Motion Picture Projector. By S. Stark	79
A New Sensitometer for the Determination of Exposure in Positive Printing. By L. A. Jones and J. I. Crabtree	89
Printing Exposure and Density in Motion Picture Positives. By Lloyd A. Jones	102
Motion Picture Work in the Philippine Islands. By O. S. Cole	112
The Alabama Polytechnic Institute. By Albert L. Thomas	116
Motion Pictures in the U. S. Army. By Roger M. Hill	119
Motion Picture Activities of the Canadian Government. By R. S. Peck	122
Demonstration and Description of the Widescope Camera. By John D. Elms	124
Committee Reports	130
Advertising Section	149
Index of Papers and Authors, 1916-1922	1

Number Fifteen

MEETING OF OCTOBER 9-10-11-12, 1922

ROCHESTER, N. Y.