

ANNOUNCEMENT

It is with great regret to all that we learn from Mr. Renwick that he is planning to return to England in the fall. He has, therefore, resigned from the office of Chairman of the Papers Committee. The Society is, however, fortunate in having Mr. J. I. Crabtree accept the office to fill out the unexpired term.

The Society also regrets the resignation of Mr. Nixon as Chairman of the Membership Committee but is again fortunate in having Mr. A. C. Dick in his stead.
